Laura Renaud-Wilson with the Julia Morgan Center for the Arts present
Side by Side an evening of contemporary performance from eight Bay Area companies

BERKELEY, CA – Come view Bay Area dance at its best, from the zany to the eloquent, at Side by Side, presented Nov. 2-3 at Julia Morgan Center for the Arts in Berkeley. Side by Side features eight innovative Bay Area dance companies who, coming together for the first time, represent a wide range of choreography from theatrical master works, to contemporary modern dance, to Tango.

Now in its second year, Side by Side brings a new and refreshing approach to the Bay Area dance scene. With influences ranging from the Afro- Brazilian roots of Paco Gomes & Dancers, new Jewish performance from Nina Haft & Co., and Dandelion Dancetheater's multi-disciplinary blend of music, dance and theater, this original night of performance is steeped in a mix of cultural tradition and ingenuity.

Side by Side is produced by Laura Renaud-Wilson and includes performances by: Anne Bluethenthal & Dancers, Dandelion Dancetheater, Deep Waters Dance Theater, Facing East Dance & Music, Moving Arts Dance, Navarrete x Kajiyama Dance Theatre, Nina Haft & Co. and Paco Gomes & Dancers
